

Type is a thing of some interest to me. It is sometimes a serious employment to deliver a message, or give a plaything that affords amusement and recreation. An interest in Type provides a broader knowledge of history, art, architecture and literature—and even politics. In short, Type can be lived on, and a spiritual stimulant, and a spiritual satisfaction.